

Mistletoe

Mistletoe came from a Norse myth when Loki shot an arrow at Balder made out of mistletoe and it became fatal ,and all the gods were angry at the mistletoe for killing there favourite god.

Frigg the goddess of love decided to make the mistletoe a symbol of affection asking that anyone who would stand under it would receive the kiss of love and forgiveness. We have taken out that tradition today when we stand under mistletoe we should kiss someone.

