

christmas presents

In England we give presents on Christmas day (25th of December) as a sign of love.

We give presents because the wise men and the Shepherds gave baby Jesus gold, myrrh and frankincense.

It is a Christian tradition that has been going on since 2000 years ago.